International Research Network of the Schopenhauer-Gesellschaft

Mission statement (December 2010)

The aims of the International Research Network of the Schopenhauer-Gesellschaft are:
- to foster an international community of researchers publishing on Schopenhauer’s philosophy in English
- to build links with the wider international community of research on Schopenhauer
- to provide a collaborative forum for the exchange of ideas, initiatives, publications, including exchange of information about seminars, conferences, publications, and access to relevant resources
- to contribute to research initiatives through rigorous philosophical and cross-disciplinary work on Schopenhauer’s thought
- to organise and promote regular seminars, workshops and conferences
- to support a resource base containing records of academic publications on Schopenhauer in English (including books, journal articles and web-based publications)
- to further joint research projects on Schopenhauer’s philosophy
- to provide a resource of information and contacts for people working in and coming into the field
- to get Schopenhauer scholars and students together on a regular basis to stimulate research in English on Schopenhauer, discuss their work, present papers, etc.
